

Politics is everywhere! This course gives you an insight in to a subject that touches every aspect of our lives – Politics!

Entry Requirements

5 GCSEs at grade 5 or above. Grade 4 in English and Maths..

Subject Specific Requirements

Grade 5 in English and grade 5 in a humanities subject.

About the Course

Politics is the art or science of governing – Who should have power in society? What's the best way to live? Who should decide the Government? If we vote, who is entitled to a vote? Do we all deserve a vote? These are just some of the engaging topics that are a central part of an A Level in Government and Politics.

Knowledge is power! This course gives you the knowledge to understand how UK Government works. Whilst we may be critical of some policies, society wouldn't function without an elected body to decide what taxes are levied, what the policies in education should be and how best to defend our country. Additionally, if you want to work in local or national government, aspire to be an MP or you aim to make a difference to society; this course is a valuable first step.

We also look at the person who is often referred to as the 'leader of the free world' - The American President, as well as seeing how US Congress and the Supreme Court all share the power in the USA!

Assessment

Paper 1—'Government and Politics of the UK'

Paper 2—'The government and politics of the USA and comparative politics'

Paper 3—'Political Ideas'

The 3 papers are at the end of the 2 years. They each last 2 hours and make up 33.3% of the A Level each. All 3 papers contain a choice of medium length 'explain' questions; looking at a specific idea or theory, and longer essay style questions.

The assessment objectives include looking using knowledge of politics effectively, writing accurately and building a clear argument and written communication—including key political terminology!

Future Applications

The skills acquired as a result of studying Government and Politics mean that a range of professions including the law, journalism, the media, and the civil service are all areas which should be considered.
