Ser vs Estar

This is a big issue for learners of Spanish. There are even blogs about it.

Look at these:

<https://spanishobsessed.com/blog/ser-vs-estar/>

<https://studyspanish.com/verbs/lessons/piserestar.htm>

<https://www.spanishdict.com/guide/ser-vs-estar>

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xs5M_XpyjvU and a you tube video ...

1. Translate these sentences (and write down why you have chosen ser or estar).

- a) Cardiff is the capital of Wales.

Cardiff es la capital de Gales. (Permanent state)

- b) Bilbao is in Spain.

Bilbao está en España. (Giving a location)

- c) They are watching TV.

Están viendo televisión. (Temporary state)

- d) His dream is to play professional football.

Su sueño es jugar al fútbol profesional. (Describing character, implies more lasting state)

- e) My sister is tired.

Mi hermana está cansada. (Temporary state)

- f) My uncle is a very quiet person.

Mi tío es una persona muy tranquila.

2. Find 5 words which change their meaning depending on whether you use ser or estar.

Write 10 short sentences to show how this works.

- Ser cansado

Mi hermano es cansado. (My brother is tiresome.); Mi hermano está cansado. (my brother is tired.)

- Ser aburrido

Mi amiga es aburrida. (My friend is boring.); Mi amiga está aburrida. (My friend is bored.)

- Ser listo

Somos listos. (We are clever.); Estamos listos. (We are clever.)

- Ser malo

Mi hijo es malo. (My son is bad.); Mi hijo está malo. (My son is ill.)

- Ser moreno

Mi novio es moreno. (My boyfriend is dark-skinned.); Mi novio está moreno. (My boyfriend is tanned).

3. Complete the text below using the words suggested in the box:

(You will have to use some words more than once and there are more words than you need!)

sois ser están estaré estamos era estaba estar esta es estoy estaba “Generalmente Nacho es un buen alumno a quien le gusta participar en todo. Es listo, decidido y locuaz. Sin embargo, a veces si algo malo pasa en casa está triste y callado. Sus padres no están interesados en cuestiones académicas y él está consciente de esto. Dice que quiere ser médico. Es un caso interesante. ¡Ah mira la hora! ¡No quiero llegar tarde! Tengo que estar lista para la clase. Siempre estoy nerviosa antes de dar clase. No quiero que los alumnos digan: “¡Estamos aburridos! Bueno estaré en clase hasta las 5. Adiós”.

4. Translate paragraph 3 above into English.

Generally, Nacho is a good student who likes to participate in everything. He is clever, dedicated and talkative. However, sometimes if something bad happens at home he is sad and reserved. His parents don't take an interest in academic matters and he is aware of that. He says that he wants to be a doctor. He is an interesting case. Oh, look at the time! I don't want to be late. I have to be ready for class. I am always nervous before teaching a lesson. I don't want the students to say: "We are bored!". Well, I will be in class until 5 o' clock. Goodbye.

The preterite tense

Rusty? Check out these websites.

h) volví	viii. they argued

a) = vi; b) = viii; c) = vii; d) = ii; e) = i; f) = iii; g) = v; h) = iv;

8. Underline the preterites in this passage, then translate the passage.

Viajé en tren hasta Glasgow y luego cogí un taxi a la Universidad. Me sorprendieron la belleza de los edificios públicos y la tranquilidad de las calles principales. El taxista me hizo varias preguntas pero fue difícil contestar. Iba observando a la gente que cruzaba las calles sin hacer caso a los semáforos. Cuando llegamos al hotel, le di al taxista una buena propina. Inesperadamente me sentía a gusto en esta ciudad. Fui al bar, pedí una cerveza y me senté.

I travelled by train to Glasgow and then I took a taxi to the university. I was surprised by the beauty of the public buildings and the tranquillity of the main streets. The taxi driver asked me a lot of questions but it was difficult to answer. I went watching the people crossing the roads without paying any attention to the traffic lights. When we arrived at the hotel, I gave the taxi driver a good tip. I felt unexpectedly at home in this city. I went to the bar and ordered a beer and I sat down.

The Imperfect tense

http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/gcsebitesize/spanish/grammar/sp_verbs_higher.shtml
<https://www.spanishdict.com/guide/spanish-imperfect-tense-forms>

9. The imperfect tense can be used as follows (explain in 1 short sentence each):

1. was /were – to describe what was happening when an action took place.
2. used to – to talk about repeated or habitual action over a period of time
3. would – to talk about a repeated or habitual action over a period of time.

10. The only 3 irregular verbs are:

Infinitive	meaning	Imperfect 1st person singular
ver	to see	veía
ir	to go	iba
ser	to be	era

11. Translate the following:

We used to go on holiday to the coast when I was young.

3. Cuando el profesor no prestaba atención, pasaba notas a mis amigos.

When the teacher wasn't paying attention, I used to pass notes to my friends.

12. Read the text below.

Highlight verbs that need to go into the imperfect in one colour, preterite another colour.

Then translate using some or all of the infinitives at the end of the text.

When we went to live in the capital, everything changed. My grandmother came with us and she looked after me while my parents were working. She would take me to the park and buy me an ice-cream. I really liked those walks. We talked all the time. I loved my grandmother a lot. Unfortunately, she died suddenly and everything changed again.

querer - cuidar – trabajar – llevar – gustar – morir – ir – cambiar – venir – vivir - hablar

Cuando fuimos a vivir en la capital, todo cambió. Mi abuela vino con nosotros y me cuidaba mientras que mis padres trabajaban. Me llevaba al parque y me compraba un helado. Me gustaba mucho esos paseos. Hablábamos todo el tiempo. Amaba muchísimo a mi abuela. Desafortunadamente, ella murió de repente y todo cambió otra vez.

Este problema del Brexit no parece tener solución. Este tipo de negociación exige paciencia y empatía. Esta es la cualidad más importante y es lo que les falta de momento a estos ministros ingleses. Ese voto del junio pasado puede ser un error histórico. Eso lo tienen que reconocer.

This Brexit problem seems to have no solution. This type of negotiation demands patience and empathy. This is the most important quality and it is that which these English ministers lack at this time. Last June's vote can be a historic mistake. They have to recognise that.

4. Underline all verbs in future/ conditional tenses then translate into English:

El año que viene aprobaré todos mis exámenes. Luego iré a la universidad donde habrá que estudiar un montón para conseguir un buen puesto de trabajo. Me gustaría trabajar en el extranjero aunque mis padres preferirían algo en el Reino Unido. En el futuro iré a la universidad. ¡Mi hermana estará muy contenta si me voy a otro país! Veremos qué pasa.

Next year I will pass all of my exams. Then I will go to university where you have to study tons to secure a good job. I would like to work abroad although my parents would prefer something in the UK. In the future I will go to university. My sister will be happy if I go to another country! We'll see what happens!

5. Cover the Spanish original and translate your English version back into Spanish.

6. Mixed Practice. Translate the following sentences.

- a) They will offer that boy a professional contract. He will be a great player.
Ofrecerán a ese chico un contrato profesional. Será un gran jugador.
- b) I would like to go on holiday to Madrid. I would visit the Prado Museum and the Royal Palace.
Me gustaría ir de vacaciones a Madrid. Visitaría el Museo Prado y el Palacio Real.
- c) We are going to have to revise a lot for these exams!
¡Vamos a tener que repasar mucho para estos exámenes!
- d) I am going to get dressed now.
Me voy a vestir ahora.
- e) Which instrument? I would play the guitar – it's easier than the piano.
¿Cuál instrumento? Tocaría la guitarra – es más fácil que el piano.

Future Perfect – what will have happened – habré terminado

Conditional Perfect – what would have happened but didn't – habría terminado

7. Revise the auxiliary verb haber and test yourself on the irregular past participles.

¡Yo habría comido eso! ¿Por qué lo pusiste en el contenedor?
- f) (Yo) habría podido entregar los deberes pero el perro comió mi cuaderno.
I could have handed in my homework but the dog ate my book.

9. Translate:

En la próxima década el hombre habrá llegado a Marte. Habremos establecido una base para explorar el planeta. Se habrá tomado la decisión de iniciar la colonización de otros mundos. Me imagino, claro, que los científicos habrían querido emprender viajes incluso más atrevidos pero los políticos habrán tenido que ser prudentes.

In the next decade, man will have reached Mars. We will have established a base from which to explore the planet. The decision to initiate the colonisation of other worlds would have been taken. I imagine, of course, that the scientists would have wanted to undertake even more daring voyages but the politicians will have to be careful.

13. Complete with correct possessive adjective.

- a) Fueron a comprar su regalo. (her)
- b) Van a visitar a sus amigos. (their)
- c) Lo que importa son las posibilidades futuras de nuestros hijos. (our)
- d) Tenéis que pensar en vuestro comportamiento. El profesor está harto. (your)
- e) Los periódicos no dejan de criticar sus ideas. (his)

14. Underline the possessive adjectives, circle the possessive pronouns.

Nunca le criticaba sus ideas pero siempre se quejaba de mis comentarios. Mis propuestas pueden ser más conservadoras que las suyas pero su actitud es agresiva. Los demás miembros del comité no saben qué hacer. “Mi proyecto es mejor que el tuyo” dice. La verdad es que el mío es más realista y cuesta menos. Veremos lo que decida nuestro comité.

15. Translate the above paragraph.

I never used to criticise his ideas, but he always used to complain about my comments. My proposals may be more conservative than his, but his attitude is aggressive. The other committee members do not know what to do. “My project is better than yours.” he says. The truth is that mine is more realistic and costs less. We will see what our committee decides.

16. Translate:

a) I don't really like my car, yours is much nicer.

No me gusta mi coche, el tuyo es más agradable.

b) My parents are in France. Where do yours live?

Mis padres están en Francia. ¿Dónde viven los tuyos?

c) This jacket....is it yours or mine?

Esa chaqueta...¿es tuya o mía?

d) They are proud of their children and we are proud of ours.

Están orgullosos de sus hijos y estamos orgullosos de los nuestros.

Passive voice (and how to avoid)

OK so now we have been reminded that the passive is formed by using ser + past participle and can be used in different tenses.

17. Check ser, complete the table.

person	present	preterite	imperfect	future	conditional
yo	soy	fui	era	seré	sería
tú	eres	fuiste	eras	serás	serías
él/ ella/usted	es	fue	era	será	sería
nosotros	somos	fuimos	éramos	seremos	seríamos
vosotros	sois	fuisteis	erais	seréis	seríais
ellos /as/ ustedes	son	fueron	eran	serán	serían

18. Translate using the passive voice (as per example; use the suggested verb).

- a) The jewels were found under the bed. (encontrar)

Las joyas fueron encontradas debajo de la cama.

- b) The shoes will be repaired in the shop near the station. (reparar)

Los zapatos serán reparados en la tienda cerca de la estación.

- c) During that time my mother was criticised a lot by the media. (criticar)

En esa época mi madre era criticada mucho por los medios de comunicación.

- d) In that case the policies would be changed. (cambiar)

En ese caso las políticas serían cambiadas.

- e) The tourist was eaten by a crocodile.

El turista fue comido por un cocodrilo.

19. As you have been reminded, the passive is more common in English and most native Spanish speakers would have avoided using the passive in a) to g) above. How do you think they would have managed this? Rewrite using the alternatives you have revised.

The Subjunctive Mood...

... is rarely used in English but Spanish absolutely loves the subjunctive. You will too (eventually). Renew your acquaintance with the basics.

https://studyspanish.com/verbs/lessons/pressubj_reg.htm
<https://www.spanishdict.com/guide/spanish-subjunctive>
<https://www.spanishdict.com/guide/spanish-present-subjunctive>

Use the websites below to research this topic

1. Answer the questions below.

a) Describe in your own words what is meant by “the subjunctive mood”.

Used to talk about desires, doubts, wishes, conjectures and possibilities.

b) How would you sum up the general underlying principle for verb endings in the subjunctive?

Take the ‘I’ form of the verb in the present tense and remove the –o.

c) Which relative pronoun usually precedes the subjunctive? que

2. Indicative vs Subjunctive. It's an ending swap - you have revised how to form the present subjunctive (from 1st person present indicative) so this will be easy - quick check, complete the regular verb table below:

	hablar	comer	vivir
yo	hable	coma	viva
tú	hables	comas	vivas
él/ella/Ud	hable	coma	viva
nosotros	hablemos	comamos	vivamos
vosotros	habléis	comáis	viváis
Ellos/ellas/Uds	hablen	coman	vivan

a) Irregular and radical changing verbs - same formula. They keep their first person form as the stem for the present subjunctive. Easy again : eg decir → digo = diga, digas, diga etc.

poder → puedo = pueda, puedes, pueda etc

b) Remember some verbs need a spelling change to maintain consistent pronunciation eg jugar → juego → juegue, juegues, juegue etc

coger → cojo → coja, cojas, coja etc

sacar → saco → saque, saques, saque etc

c) That still leaves a few irregular verbs with irregular present subjunctive forms - very common so will be easy to remember as you will be using them all the time. These are important verbs so check the full conjugation and spelling/accents and learn! :

infinitive	indicative	subjunctive	infinitive	indicative	subjunctive
ser	soy	sea	estar	estoy	esté
ir	voy	vaya	dar	doy	dé
saber	sé	sepa	haber	hay	haya

3. Change these verbs to the subjunctive. Complete the table:

Indicative	Subjunctive
votamos	votemos
bebén	beban
juegas	juegues
ayudas	ayudes
vengo	venga
vamos	vayamos
piensan	piensen

4. Put the suggested verb into the subjunctive. Think about why it might have to be in the subjunctive:

- a) Te pido por favor que hagas estos ejercicios para mañana. (hacer)
- b) Es probable que los alumnos se comporten bien durante la excursión. (comportarse)
- c) Me alegro de que mi vecino nos ayude con esta tarea. (ayudar)
- d) Espero que no lleguemos tarde. (llegar, nosotros)
- e) Es importante que nos expliques cual es tu problema. (explicar)

5. Translate using the present subjunctive and briefly say why – main categories =

1. doubt/improbability, (hasn't, may not happen)
2. value judgement (which is not totally certain, often impersonal expressions),
3. emotion,
4. recommendation (attempt to influence!)

- a) I don't think he wants to pay.
No creo que él quiera pagar. (doubt)
- b) It's important they learn how to swim.
Es importante que aprendan como nadar. (value judgement)
- c) We advise you to practise the subjunctive.
Aconsejamos que practiques el subjuntivo. (recommendation)
- d) My parents are happy that we work in London.
Mis padres están contentos que trabajemos en Londres. (emotion)
- e) It's a pity you and your sister still smoke.
Es una lástima que tú y tu hermana ya fuméis. (emotion)
- f) My brother has told me not to drink at home.
Mi hermano me ha dicho que no beba en casa. (recommendation)

6. Other contexts where the subjunctive is required: (we said you'd need it!)

Review your working knowledge by skimming these websites. Both set out the issues clearly.

<https://www.lawlessspanish.com/grammar/verb/subjunctive-uc.html>

<http://users.ipfw.edu/jehle/courses/SUBJADV.HTM>

7. Complete this summary:

The subjunctive is required after conjunctions when the situation in the adverbial clause is seen as something hypothetical or anticipatory. Some conjunctions are often followed by the subjunctive but conjunctions that deal with time will use the subjunctive where they refer to what has not happened yet.

8. Identify 10 conjunctions which are always followed by the subjunctive:

conjunction	meaning	preposition
a condición de que	on condition that	x
a menos que	unless	x
a no ser que	lest, unless	x
en caso de que	in the event of	en caso de antes de que	before	antes de

9. Complete then translate (consider why Spanish uses the subjunctive in most of these examples):

- a) No nos iremos hasta que Miguel llegue. (llegar)
We won't go until Miguel arrives.
- b) Pueden cenar cuando termine la película. (terminar)
They can have dinner when the film ends.
- c) En cuanto empiece el partido, se marchará a su dormitorio. (empezar)
As soon as the match starts, s/he will go to his room.
- d) A no ser que mejore la situación económica, el ministro dimitirá. (mejorar)
Unless the economic situation improves, the minister will resign.
- e) ¡Ojalá no nos diere más deberes sobre el subjuntivo! (dar)
Hopefully he won't give us more homework on the subjunctive!
- f) Ana estudia mucho para evitar las críticas de su padre. (evitar)
Ana studies a lot to avoid criticism from her father.

10. Consider how 'aunque' is used and translate:

- a) Aunque llueva, iremos al campo.
Even though it is raining, we will go to the countryside.
- b) Aunque prefiero quedarme en casa, te acompañaré a la reunión.
Although I prefer staying at home, I will go with you to the meeting.
- c) Even if it's the best paella in the world, I will not be able to eat it!
Aunque sea la mejor paella en el mundo, no podré comerla.

Verbs and other constructions with the infinitive.

<https://quizlet.com/168481481/spanish-constructions-with-infinitive-flash-cards/>

So - many common verbs are followed by an infinitive (often translated in English by the present participle '-ing')

11. Translate into Spanish using some of the verbs suggested or alternatives you think might work. Think carefully about the tenses you decide to use.

Soler - deber - ponerse a - acabar de - tener que - odiar - gustar – necesitar – permitir - ayudar a - negarse a - conseguir - empeñarse en – soñar con - dejar de - temer - necesitar – poder – tardar en - olvidar – conseguir - poder

- a) We used to hate living in the city.

Odiábamos vivir en la ciudad.

- b) They like going to that restaurant.

Les gustan ir a ese restaurante.

- c) She dreams of being an actress.

Ella sueña con ser actriz.

- d) The world needs to protect the environment.

El mundo necesita proteger el medio ambiente.

- e) The workers refused to obey their boss.

Los trabajadores se negaron a obedecer su jefe.

- f) You will have to present the complaint before the end of the month.

Tienes que presentar la queja antes del fin del mes.

- g) He manages to get good grades all the time but I don't know how.

Consigue obtener buenas notas todo el tiempo pero no sé cómo.

- h) We should explore other ideas because I would like to offer alternatives.

Deberíamos explorar otras ideas porque me gustaría ofrecer alternativas.

- i) I am afraid of speaking in public.

Tengo miedo de hablar en público.

12. Consider the verbs you didn't use in a) to i) above and create 3 short examples of your own.

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)

Impersonal Constructions and Prepositions + infinitive

13. Translate these examples.

- a) Siempre es aconsejable pensar antes de contestar demasiado rápido. =
It is always advisable to think before answering too quickly.
- b) Fue fácil engañarle – prefiere callarse en vez de hacer preguntas. =
It was easy to deceive him – he prefers to stay quiet instead of asking questions.
- c) ¡Después de escucharle toda la tarde, es necesario ir al bar! =
After listening to him all evening, I need to go to the bar!
- d) Es peligroso cruzar la calle sin esperar la señal.
It is dangerous crossing the street without waiting for the signal.

The imperative

The formation of positive and negative formal and informal commands can seem daunting in Spanish. As ever regular practice and use will clarify, familiarise and consolidate. The websites below are helpful in slightly different ways. In Spanish we might say apparently assertively: '¡ repásalos !. In English we would probably be less direct eg 'it would be a good idea if you used the links below to review your knowledge of imperatives'. The message is the same !

<http://www.lingolex.com/swom/wom-imperative.htm>
<https://www.thoughtco.com/direct-commands-spanish-3079838>
<https://studyspanish.com/grammar/lessons/commrev1>

OK so now you have been reminded to remove the 's' from the tú form of the present tense (¡bebé! = drink! singular) and the 'r' from the infinitive (and add a 'd') (¡bebé! plural). If you need to be more formal when you are ordering someone about, then we have another use for the 'usted' form of the present subjunctive (¡beba! and ¡beban!).

14. We would be upset if there were no irregulars - match these commands with their infinitive:

ser	haz
venir	ve
poner	pon
tener	sé
hacer	di
salir	ten
ver	ven
decir	sal

Negative imperatives use the subjunctive (¡No bebas demasiado! ¡No toquen el piano!)

15. Complete then translate: (choose familiar/formal/person according to what you think is correct and suits the context)

- a) Mariano ¡Escucha lo que dice el guía! (escuchar)
Mariano, listen to what the guide is saying!
- b) ¡No olvides tus cuadernos! (olvidar)
Don't forget your books!
- c) ¡Corre! El tren sale. (correr) Run! The train is leaving.
- d) ¡Señoras y señores! ¡Sigan por aquí! (seguir)
Ladies and gentlemen! Follow this way!
- e) ¡Esconde el regalo hasta que llegue! (esconder)
Hide the gift until he arrives!

Gerund and continuous (progressive) tenses

Remind yourselves of the similarities and differences English vs Spanish. It looks straightforward but these ‘continuous’ forms are less commonly used in Spanish and there are some important points to remember such as use of an infinitive where English might deploy a gerund cf Me gusta nadar/ I like swimming.

16. Look at these websites to learn more about the gerund and continuous tenses.

<http://users.ipfw.edu/JEHL/COURSES/GERUND.HTM>

<https://www.spanishdict.com/guide/gerunds-in-spanish>

<https://www.thoughtco.com/progressive-verb-forms-3079162>

Note irregulars (decir/ diciendo etc), radical changing -ir verbs using their 3rd person preterite forms (durmiente, repitiendo, pidiendo, muriendo) and infinitive endings preceded by a vowel cf leer → leyendo, traer → trayendo

Other constructions used to describe continuing actions – these are used frequently and you need to be able to use them actively:

- a) continuar / seguir + gerund = continue/ doing / still doing
- b) llover + gerund = how long doing something and still doing it
- c) al + infinitive = by -ing, on -ing.

17. Match the Spanish and English.

- | | |
|--|---|
| a) Está cantando | 1. On getting up |
| b) Sigues molestándome | 2. Being unable to attend |
| c) Estábamos paseando | 3. She's singing |
| d) Al levantarse | 4. Reading is fun |
| e) Lleváis varias horas sin hacer nada | 5. They rushed out |
| f) No pudiendo asistir | 6. We were out walking |
| g) Leer es divertido | 7. You are still bothering me |
| h) Salieron corriendo | 8. You have spent several hours doing nothing |

a) = 3; b) = 7; c) = 6; d) = 1; e) = 8; f) = 2; g) = 4; h) = 5

18. Translate into Spanish.

1. I am waiting for my friend and then we are going to the cinema. =
Estoy esperando a mi amiga y luego vamos al cine.
2. They have been studying Chinese for 5 years. =
Llevan cinco años estudiando chino.
3. We were having supper when they arrived. =
Cenábamos cuando llegaron.
4. She continued protesting despite the silence of everyone else. =
Siguió protestando a pesar del silencio de todos los demás.
5. By not listening to your parents, you are making a big mistake. =
Al no escuchar a tus padres estás cometiendo un gran error.

Soler – interesting, frequent and very useful verb with no direct equivalent in English. Its meaning merges into the infinitive which always follows it.

- a) Solemos ver la telenovela sueca los miércoles por la noche. (we, present tense)
We usually watch the Swedish soap opera on Wednesday nights.
- b) Solían ir a pie al colegio todos los días. (they, imperfect)
They used to walk to school everyday.
- c) El presidente suele escuchar las noticias antes de acostarse. (he, present)
The president usually listens to the news before going to bed.
- d) ¿Cómo solía celebrar la Navidad en el siglo diecinueve? (it, imperfect)
How was Christmas celebrated in the 19th century?
- e) Sueles evitar las decisiones difíciles – ya es hora de comportarte como un adulto.
You usually avoid difficult decisions – it's time to behave like an adult.

The subjunctive in different tenses

Go to this website and refamiliarise yourself with the different subjunctive tenses.

1. Read the following notes.

The website below refers to the different subjective tenses and reminds you of the conjugations and irregulars as well as offering clear examples.

Like many modern textbooks it uses the acronym WEIRDO which stands for Wishes, Emotions, Impersonal Expressions, Recommendations, Doubt/Denial, and Ojalá. As you already know these are all situations in which you're likely to use the subjunctive.

<https://www.spanishdict.com/guide/spanish-subjunctive>

We looked at the use of the present subjunctive in booklet 5. We noted how common the subjunctive is in Spanish. Remember whatever the subjunctive tense you are using you need to keep in mind 2 main rules:

1. Something needs to trigger the subjunctive, sometimes called a 'subjunctive introducer'.
2. Subjunctive sentences usually have one subject in the main clause and a different one in the subordinate clause.

Main clause tense	Subordinate clause with a subjunctive as appropriate
-present	present subjunctive – action in progress or possibly happening in the future
-perfect
-future	perfect subjunctive – action completed
-preterite	imperfect subjunctive
-imperfect	– action not completed or possible future event; plus frequent use in si clauses : ie Si + imperfect + conditional
-conditional (si clause)
-pluperfect	pluperfect subjunctive – action had been completed
