

RE 50 Things to learn in January

You have PPEs in February on both Hinduism and Christianity – you should have a revision booklet for each one... use them to find out and learn!

21 Hinduism points to learn in January: use the revision guide!!

1. Difference between nirguna and saguna.
2. 5 points about each of the Trimurti.
3. Who and what are avatars?
4. What is the triguna?
5. What are the 4 ages?
6. What are the 4 aims of life?
7. What is the difference between varnashrama dharma and sanatana dharma?
8. How is Diwali celebrated?
9. How is Holi celebrated?
10. What is pilgrimage?
11. What is the difference between Shaivism and Vaishnavism?
12. What is havan?
13. What is arti?
14. What is puja?
15. What is darshan?
16. What are bhajan / kirtan?
17. What are japas?
18. What are the 4 paths towards yoga?
19. Do you think bhakti yoga is more important than karma yoga?
20. What is the Kumbh Mela?
21. Why do Hindus visit Varanasi?

25 points to learn about Christianity in January: use the revision guide!

1. What is omnipotent?
2. What does it mean to say God is just?
3. What is the problem of evil and suffering?
4. What do Christians say about the role of the Word in creation?
5. What do Christians say about the role of the Spirit in creation?
6. What is resurrection?
7. What is judgement?
8. Why don't all Christians believe in hell?
9. Who believes in purgatory?
10. What is the incarnation?
11. What is the crucifixion?
12. What is the ascension?
13. What is salvation?
14. What is the atonement?
15. What is the difference between liturgical and non-liturgical worship?
16. What is private worship?
17. What is a sacrament?
18. Who gave Christians the Lord's prayer?
19. What is the difference between infant and believer's baptism?
20. What is the Eucharist?
21. What is transubstantiation?
22. Why may a Christian visit Lourdes?
23. Why may a Christian visit Iona?
24. How and why is Christmas celebrated?
25. How and why is Easter celebrated?

And a final four points.... learn these key Bible teachings:

“All humans created in the image of God.”

Jesus said ‘Love God’ and ‘Love your neighbour’. Neighbour = everyone....

On the cross Jesus prayed ‘Father forgive them’...

“For God so loved the world he sent his only son into the world...”

